Graduate to College Level Fundraising

Show Your Support with CampusFundraiser!

When you order any magazine for $40, you help student groups meet critical funding needs.

Dear Supporter,

Each year CampusFundraiser gets high marks for helping student groups and sports teams raise money for their activities. Good thing, too, because when it comes to funding the activities of these groups and teams, we students are required to fend for ourselves. Last year alone, with the support of people just like yourself, CampusFundraiser helped raise over $1,500,000 for college student groups just like ours.

When you order any magazine for yourself or a friend for just $40, a portion of every dollar goes to support our student group.

Every magazine subscription that you purchase represents a contribution to our organization by you. Please help us score an "A" in Fundraising 101 and raise the money our group needs to function. We're sure you'll agree: such a simple way to support an important part of college life is really a no-brainer.

VOLUNTEER INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Make a list of people who'd like to help with a single $40 check. Approach family, friends, classmates, coaches, teachers, alumni, and employers.
2. Show this brochure to potential supporters. Take it to work, your dorm, your classes, cafeteria, rec center, student union, or anyone else you think would like to help your cause. Point out that a portion of every subscription dollar goes to support your group!
3. Complete an order form for each contributor and indicate a method of payment. Make sure to include the expiration date for credit card orders and that all checks are payable to "CampusFundraiser". Remind your supporters that they can order multiple magazines on the same order form.
4. Give a receipt to your contributors for each paid order. Tell them they'll receive their first magazine in 6 to 8 weeks from publisher's receipt of order.
5. Turn in all checks and orders to your group leader for prompt fulfillment.

THINK SAFE. BE SAFE.

Group Leaders: Please monitor your group's sales activities if participating in this program.

GREAT GIFT IDEA!
